SIX Jews have taken the Egyptian loan of five millions. The foremothers of these Israelites borrowed all the jewelry of their ancient neighbors when they quit the country, and never paid them back. Here there is a fine opportunity for the Viceroy to balance the outstanding debts of the Pharaohs.

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG, of the New York Standard, comes out strongly in favor of electing Charles A. Dana, of the Sun, to the office of Coroner. If Dana were quite sure, says a contemporary, that it would secure him the privilege of holding an inquest on the body of Young, he would rather be Coroner than President.

THERE is an elephant for sale in New York just now but the elephant market is heavy, and there seems to be no buyers. It is understood that the elephant can be bought for a few cents, but several thousand dollars will be charged for a little dog without which the mastodon becomes violent and kills his keepers and owners.

A NEW patent is out for the making of steel rails direct from the pig. The iron is melted in a cupola, run into a reverbatory furnace (where it is carbonized) run into ingots (allowed to set,) reheated, run through the rollers and made into rails, which, it is said, can be sold profitably at $45 per ton. This is a valuable invention if these things are so.

A CLAUSE in the new tax bill taxes all gambling tables $100 each annually. Since this might be constructed as indirectly legalizing the practice of a vice which, in most States, is prohibited by law, it would be proper that the clause, if retained, should be qualified by confirming its application only to States, like Louisiana for example, which affix no penalties to the indulger.

THE Portsmouth (Ohio) Tribune say: "Miss Belle Smith, of Smith's Landing, Brown county, Ohio, now residing in Washington city, and devoting her time to painting has received a Government order for a portrait of the late E. M. Stanton, to cost two thousand dollars. This lady is a cousin of Mrs. C. P. Tracy, of this place, and is well known to many of our citizens. She has spent considerable time in Europe, and made the fine arts a study."

THE Convocation of York refuses to join that of Canterbury in bringing about a revision of the English Bible. For this reason a royal commission is out of the question, but the Convocation of Canterbury has resolved to undertake the work, and ask the aid of all religous denominations throughout the English-speaking world. The Dean of Canterbury wishes to include the Jews also, so far as the Old Testament is concerned. Therefore, every one who has an amendment to propose should send it to the Archbishop of Canterbury, post-paid. The present version was a long time in preparation, and after it was published it was a full half century before it came into general use. A new version might take longer, considering the violent opposition of men like Lord Shaftesbury to any change. It is said that an adequate revision would, on an average, change one word in every verse of the New Testament; and many whole verses, and some that are considered very important ones, would be left out altogether.

THE plan of the new Court Theater for Dresden has been completed by Professor Semper. The new edifice will be distinguished for its beauty and appropriateness, as well as for its originality of form. Semper has embodied the leading ideas, which he made the basis of the plan he made for the projected Fest Theater in Munich, after Wagner's principles. The ground plan approaches the form of the Grecian stage, with its amphitheatrical arrangement of the seats for the audience. Wagner's idea of an invisible orchestra will be realized in the Dresden theatre. The sum of four hundred thousand thalers, already granted for the building, is thought to be insufficient.

PRESIDENT GRANT, having purchased Howard Potter's beautiful cottage, at Long Branch, is expected to occupy it with his family during the summer season. THE Corry Blade learns that when Jay Gould was in that section a few days ago, he bought the controlling interest in the incipient Union and Titusville Railroad, and that the contract for building it will shortly be let.

THE Titusville Herald says: A Refinery at Pioneer, belonging to Councilman Lowrie, was destroyed by fire on Friday evening; loss about $2,900. Considerable refined oil was saved. One of the employes, Matthew Mars, was severely but not fatally burned. Mr. Lowrie will rebuild at once, and hopes to have his refinery in operation again soon.

A YOUNG woman of good looks and manners, fresh from the intimacies of perfectly decent life, who left home on account of ill treatment of a step-father, made her appearance recently at a house of ill-fame in Cincinnati, and demanded "board." The landlady questioned her closely, found that she was an entire stranger to bad life, advised her that she might about as well kill herself as to become a prostitute, and finally refused positively to take her as a boarder. The girl persisting in her determination to become a woman of the town, evidently without having any idea of the horrors of such a life, the landlady gave notice of her intention to the Chief of Police, who has taken steps to save her, for a time at least, from the terrible fate to which she invites herself.

THE SWEET ESTRAYS.

[An invalid, whom a long and protracted illness has confined to a bed of suffering, attests, in the following lines, the pleasure derived by her, on Decoration Day, from a friend's remembrance in a small gift of flowers.]

While loving hands were decking
Each soldier's silent tomb,
Two lovely, fragrant roses
Came smiling to my room.

Two wandering fairy elves,
Caught far from "sylvan bowers,"
Could not have looked so meekly
As did these blushing flowers.

From the throng of weeping mourners,
From the graves of our hallowed dead
With a tender love for the living,
To my room, these lovely "truants sped.

Saying: "A marvelous wealth of blossoms
Crowns each slumbering hero's tomb—
So we softly stole away, to cheer
A living martyr's room!"

ALLEGHENY, May 30, 1870.

Elegant Mansion House,

Formerly occupied by James A. Hutchison, Esq., Sixth ward, Allegheny City, together with about three acres of ground, fronting on the Ohio river, Preble, Rayard and Adams streets. The river front is 360 feet, the mansion is about 84 by 44 feet, two stories high, slate roof; the rooms are large—parlor 18 by 40, dining room 19 by 28, library 17 by 19, hall 8 by 40, porch 8 by 40, and the chambers, kitchen, pantry, bath and other rooms are all very large and airy and conveniently arranged, so as to go into any room in the house without having to go through another. Nearly all the rooms have marble or slate mantles, the ceilings are lofty and many of them handsomely paneled in tasteful style; the grounds are handsomely laid out in lawns, &c., and well covered with fine fruit, such as apples, peaches, pears and other small fruit. The house has two fronts—the one on the river is a magnificent view of the river and the whole country around, and is a very pleasant place, having the fresh breeze from the river, and free from any smoke, soot, &c. Inquire of C. H. Love, 58 Fourth avenue.

The World Moves.

Republican simplicity that was the pride and glory of our country, is fast receding into the times that were, and in the light of the luxurious tastes that are being rapidly disseminated, the memory of it will be like a misty fable of the ancient world. Homespun fabric has given place to broadcloth, silk and satin. Tea and coffees have become necessaries; fine wines have become a regular article of import, and here in our city the parlors of some of our citizens have been transformed into miniature palaces, by means of furniture whose elegance would have shocked the republican virtue of our simple ancestors. And, in truth, it is hard not to sympathize with this taste when one looks at the superb articles turned out in the workshop of our worthy townsmen, Messrs. C. G. Hammer & Sons, Nos. 46, 48 and 50 Seventh avenue. Their beautiful antique styles of furniture add to the stately splendor of medieval workmanship all the elegance of modern finish, so that the staunchest republican could not resist their attractions.

The Coward Family.

A few days ago we published the news that Mr. Robert Coward, of this city, and his relatives believe they are the rightful owners of $250,000,000 in gold. The following is the statement of the Coward family:

From the earliest records attainable, it is proven that the Coward family are Saxon in origin. Many of them have filled places of trust and respect in the British dominions. Sir Leonard Coward, Knight, was for a long time Alderman and once Mayor of the city of Bath, in Somersetshire, A. D., 1795, Capt. Hugh Coward, of Bristol, Somersetshire; commanded His Majesty's ship, "Rover," in A. D., 1771; visited New York in A. D. 1712. The name of the family has at times been altered, so as to do away with the express term "Coward." It has been registered as "Cowherd," and "Cowert," the same alteration has taken place in the United States, in some branches of the family, whether from desire or mistake it is not known. How the name was derived is not shown. The late family of William Coward, or Cowherd, deceased, were zealous in establishing the Vegeterian faith, and all their effort, means and influence were devoted to that cause, which has proven a failure. Hugh Coward was the father of Rev. John Coward, deceased, who arrived in this country, in the city of New York about A. D. 1715, as an Episcopal minister. He then came to Middletown, Monmouth county, New Jersey, and was there baptised and preached as a Baptist minister. Thence he moved to Crosswicks, in Upper Freehold, where he preached for a long time at the place known as "Yellow Meeting-House," at which place he was buried. He died July 30, A. D., 1760. All the family of Cowards in the United States of North America are direct descendants from Rev. John Coward, deceased. William Cowherd, or Coward, deceased, became the heir of Leonard Coward, deceased; Rev. John Coward became the heir of William Coward, who died in 1816 without issue. The heirs of Rev. John Coward are now the lawful heirs of the estate of William Coward, which estate is valued at a fabulous amount, awaiting claims from America.

ROME.

ROME, May 31.—The debate upon the dogma of infallibility continues in violence and energy, the opposition maintaining a desperate stand against overwhelming numbers. Their objections will be overruled by a decided majority when the question comes to a vote about the end of July. The arguments pro and con will all have been made by that time, and everything in readiness for the promulgation of the dogma. The debate yesterday was of importance. The opposition first obtained the floor, and Bishops of St Brience and St. Gall spoke against infallibility. Bishop Rothenberg made an energetic appeal. He declared that three successive Ecumenical Councils had anathematized Pope Honorius, denouncing him as a heretic. Archbishop Swartzenburg referred in language of contempt to the excuses of the advocates of the dogma, in their endeavors to explain away the truth and justice of the argument against Honorius affirmation that infallibility was inopportune, because such argument was false. He quoted from the words of eminent theologians, adducing authority to prove that Popes could be deposed for heresy.

Cardinal Von Rauscher, through his deputy, entered a strong protest on behalf of society, and in the interest of civil governments, against proceedings so prejudicial to the cause of freedom of thought and action. The tenor of the document was blended with expressions of devotion to the Holy see.

Cardinal Cullim attempted to refute the arguments of Rauscher and Schwartzenburg, but failed.

Dr. Mochli vigorously attacked Cullim's arguments.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 31.—Yesterday more than twenty persons in the St. Mazas prison, charged with complicity in the late Regicide plot, were unconditionally released. It is announced that more will be released to-day.

The movement in favor of Cernaschi, the Italian banker exiled for having contributed money to the radicals to help the defeat of the affirmative vote on the plebiscitum, is very popular in Paris, and will unquestionably be successful.

The session of the Corps Legislatif yesterday was nearly consumed in debating means to check the ravages of small pox in Paris. No sessions of the High Court will be held outside of Paris during the present session of the Corps. The latter will continue until the first of August.

Prince De La Tour D'Auvergne has accepted the appointment of French Ambassador at Vienna, but is now ill with small-pox and will be unable to proceed to his post for some time.

Vallandigham and other prominent leaders are here.

XLIST CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 31, 1870.

SENATE.

Mr. CHANDLER introduced a bill to encourage the building of ships for foreign trade and for other purposes.

The joint resolution for extending the time for constructing a railroad from St. Croix River, at the west end of Lake Superior, to Bayfield, Wisconsin, was passed.

Mr. SUMNER, from Committee on Foreign Relations, upon the petition of Cyrus W. Field for aid in establishing inter-oceanic communication between America and Asia, reported a bill carrying out the ideas of the memorialist, incorporating the Pacific Sub-marine Company and to facilitate telegraph communication between America and Asia.

He also reported on other bills on the same subject adversely.

Mr. HARLAN, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported adversely upon bills for the ratification of treaties with the Greek Nation, the Stockbridge and other Indian tribes.

Also, with the Miami Indians of Kansas.

Upon Mr. HARLAN'S motion, the Senate voted upon and rejected the several treaties.

The bill to change the judicial circuits of the United States was considered without action and debated, mainly upon including Connecticut in the New York Circuit.

The Senate then went into executive session.

At half-past four o'clock the Senate took a recess till half-past seven.

Evening Session.—Mr. MORRILL called up the bill for supplying deficiencies in appropriations for compensation and mileage of members of the House of Representatives.

The amendments by the Committee on Appropriations, appropriating $1,400,000 for deficiencies in appropriations for collecting custom duties, and $20,000 to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to pay special counsel, were debated and adopted and the bill passed.

The bill for the relief of Rollin White, returned by the President with his objections, was debated.

The bill was finally passed over the President's objections by the constitutional two-thirds vote—yeas 41, nays 13.

Mr. STEWART called up the House joint resolution in relation to the suspension of the sale of certain lands in California.

The Senate was more than three hours engaged in the consideration of the Sandwich Island reciprocity treaty.

Mr. SUMNER made an elaborate speech in favor of the ratification, and was followed by Mr. CORBETT, who spoke briefly on the same side.

Mr. SHERMAN argued against the ratification, discussing the subject at length as to its financial bearing.

Mr. CHANDLER spoke briefly but earnestly against the treaty.

The debate so far has taken a wide range, involving the great question of the desirability of making reciprocity treaties with other commercial nations, and the present indications point to its continuation for a considerable time longer. No vote was taken to-day.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The bill to revive the navigation and commercial interests of the United States was considered.

The previous question was seconded and the main question ordered.

The discussion was then continued by Messrs. Lynch and Wood.

In the course of the debate and discussion objection was made by Mr. SCHENCK, that the hour allowed for closing the debate was already consumed by the chairman of the Select Committee.

Mr. LYNCH characterized the objection and interruption as an unusual proceeding.

Mr. SCHENCK remarked the gentleman had closed the debate two or three times.

Mr. LYNCH denied this.

Mr. SCHENCK made the point of order that the hour to which Mr. Lynch was entitled had been consumed by him.

The Speaker intimated he would have to sustain the point of order, but appealed to Mr. Schenck not to insist upon it.

Mr. SCHENCK accordingly withdrew it.

Mr. LYNCH proceeded with his remarks, in the course of which he made a remark which reflected on the motive or the object of Mr. Schenck.

Mr. SCHENCK asked. What do you mean by imputing motives?

Mr. LYNCH—I withdraw the remark.

Mr. SCHENCK.—You ought to; it is impertinent and indecent. I have acted on my own judgment in regard to this bill.

Mr. LYNCH—I withdraw the remark in order to save time—to go on with my argument.

At the close of his speech further remarks were made by Messrs. Peters and Cox, and then the House proceeded with the vote on the bill and amendments.

Mr. BUTLER withdrew his, imposing differential duties.

That of Mr. Cox, striking out the proviso allowing drawbacks where the materials used were American production, was agreed to, as was that of Mr. Reeves, adding lead, copper and copper sheathing to the materials on which drawbacks would be allowed.

The other amendments were rejected.

The House, then, by yeas 80, nays 101, refused to order the bill to third reading.

Subsequently the vote was reconsidered on motion of Mr. WOOD, and the bill recommitted to the Select Committee on Decline of American Commerce.

The bill to reduce internal taxes was taken up.

Mr. LOGAN withdrew his amendment.

On motion of Mr. MARSHALL, the designation of what constitutes wholesale liquor dealers was amended by increasing the minimum from a quart to a gallon.

In the course of a discussion on the whisky question, Mr. MARSHALL intimated that the machinery for collecting taxes was so much improved that there might be a proposition entertained to increase the present rate of taxation, and Mr. CULLOM argued that instead of this bill reducing taxation $33,000,000, it should be reduced at least $75,000,000, as there was no prospect of reducing the tariff.

Mr. SCHENCK threw upon the low tariff men, including Mr. Cullom, the responsibility for the failure of the tariff bill, and said if the majority of those desiring to lower the tariff had stuck by the Committee of Ways and Means, that bill would have had before this time the sanction of the House and gone to the Senate.

Mr. BUTLER, Massachusetts, said he had not moved to lay the tariff bill aside until that gentleman (Mr. Schenck) had told the House and country he had no hope of passing it this session, and he had hoped the gentleman would then bring in a short bill making a reduction of the tariff. He had also hoped to have a short internal revenue bill reported. He would now tell that gentleman he could not get through the House the pending long bill any more than the tariff bill, and its consideration was only so much time thrown away. He had hoped to see the income tax abolished. He intended to ask the House to instruct the Committee of Ways and Means to report a short bill for the reduction of internal taxes and of tax gatherers and officials, and for the abolition of inquisition into men's business.

After the further discussion Mr. SCHENCK moved previous question on first section, which was seconded, cutting off further amendments and the House proceeded to consider the second section, which permits purchase by or for the use of the United States any articles free of tax.

On motion of Mr. INGERSOLL, the section was struck out.

The third and fourth sections, in reference to special taxes, were passed with a few verbal amendments.

The fifth section makes provision for the punishment of persons subject to special taxes who refuse to exhibit receipts for the payment of tax.

On motion of Mr. HOAR, these provisions were struck out and the following substituted: Shall be subject to the same penalty as if the tax were unpaid.

The sixth section was passed without amendment.

The seventh section was, on motion of Mr. ELA, amended by inserting the following: And any person who shall sell out his business may transfer his special tax receipt to his successor, who may continue the business without payment of an additional tax.

Sections eighth, ninth and tenth were passed with a few verbal amendments.

Mr. COX moved to strike out section eleventh, taxing passports. Negatived.

The House progressed with the bill as far as section sixteenth, without adopting any important amendment.

The Speaker appointed as the Committee to visit West Point, Messrs. Logan, Schenck and Slocum.

Adjourned.

Riot and Shooting Affray—Fatal Result.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MADISON, Ind., May 31.—A fatal riot and shooting affray occurred in this city about seven o'clock this evening, the particulars of which are substantially as follows: John Gavin, a well known Irishman, who has figured conspicuously in the police courts hereabouts for several years, got into a difficulty with a miller named Messmore, and struck him. Messmore, who is a quiet and peaceable man, immediately put himself on the defensive, and the two clinched each other. About this time Mr. John W. Luick, prosecutor of our criminal court, who happened to be passing at the time, appeared in the attitude of peacemaker and endeavored to separate the combatants. Gavin then loosed his hold on Messmore and at once assaulted Luick. One or two other men who, it seems, were in company with Gavin in the first place and had been drinking with him, also joined in the attack on Luick. The latter proved to be equal to the occasion and successfully held his opponents at bay single-handed for some time. Gavin struck at Luick several times, but his blows were warded off and Luick outflanking him felled him to the ground with his fist. Finally, a man by the name of Griffin, an employe of Gavin, ran up and struck Luck with a dray pin, but failed to knock him down.

It is said other weapons were also drawn on Luick by the friends of Gavin. Finally the street fight terminated, and Marshal Whedon came to the scene with writs for the arrest of the offenders. Gavin swore he would not be taken, and threatened to shoot the Marshal if he attempted it. Drawing his weapons he defied the authorities. Whedon finding himself in a desperate situation, demanded a surrender, and at length, in self defence, fired at Gavin. The ball entered Gavin's head near his eye. He fell and almost instantly expired.

The Coroner is now holding an inquest on the body, which lies at the residence of the deceased. No one seems surprised at the death of Gavin, as from his drinking, quarrelsome disposition, those who knew him fully expected that sooner or later he would meet with a violent death. He leaves a wife and several children, who, however, are not likely to suffer, as it is understood Gavin possessed some considerable property.

The report of the Joint Committee on Home Missions was considered. Various items bearing on the consolidation of the Board of Domestic Missions with the Committee on Home Missions was adopted. The question then arose on the locality of the principal office of the newly consolidated board. The cities of New York, Philadelphia and Chicago were nominated, but Chicago was afterwards withdrawn. The roll was called, resulting—New York, 306; Philadelphia, 153. The vote created considerable excitement, though but little enthusiasm was manifested when the result was declared.

At the afternoon session, Rev. Dr. Adams presented a resolution providing that the report of the Directors of the Northwestern Theological Seminary at Chicago be referred to a special committee consisting of Rev. Drs. Reed and McLaren, Rev Messrs. Cunningham and Lewis, Elders D. S. Courtnay, G. R. Fox and J. M. Rudolph's principal runs were 111, 106, 117, 153 and 123, and Dion's 177, 90, 108, 138 and 150.

FENIANISM.

Escape of a "Head Centre" at Malone—Search for Arms—Disposition of Prisoners—Review of the Canadian Troops on the Border.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

THE ESCAPE OF A FENIAN "HEAD CENTER."

MALONE, N. Y., May 31.—The escape of Edward Mannix, the Fenian Head Centre, has created great excitement and has caused extra precautions to be taken against a similar effort by the remaining prisoners. Captain Harlow, commanding the rink guard house, states that the first man who moves beyond the sentry lines will be shot down mercilessly by the guard. The escape of Mannix was daring and well conceived. The prisoners were being removed from the upper story of the guard house to the small compartment at the lower end under guard, and as soon as the sentry turned his back Mannix jumped through a window into the saw pit a distance of fifteen feet, and through the connivance of the outside sentry escaped. The correspondent of the World witnessed the affair and saw Mannix jump into the wagon and disappear. The efforts of the Marshal and the troops to re-capture him have been fruitless.

PROGRESS in the House, on the new tax-bill is pleasantly rapid. From present indications, we infer that the Committee will be generally sustained, without any serious contest upon any point outside of the income question, which will meet a strong but unavailing opposition. The temper of the House on the bill as a whole, has been thus far kind, and leads to the hope that it may reach a final vote this week.

REPORTS from Washington insist upon the better prospects for San Domingo, under the postponement of the period for ratification which has just been announced to the Senate. The President recommends that the sum to be paid for the island shall be absolutely limited to $1,500,000, and that this be faithfully devoted to the discharge of the Dominican debts to foreigners, leaving them to repudiate all their obligations to domestic creditors. Rather an inauspicious beginning, for the annexation of a foreign country to the most honest and enlightened Republic of the world!

FENIANISM has succeeded in touching the Canadian pockets, if not their fears. It costs the Deminion something to parade its armed strength on the border. They say it is an Imperial quarrel and that England should pay all charges for heating the poker. This is a reasonable demand and should be acceded to. But what then becomes of self-government in the Dominion? The sooner our provincial neighbors shall assume for themselves an independent position, with a recognized membership in the great family of nations, the sooner will Canada be freed from Fenian raids, or be entitled to conduct her own reclamations for any international wrong.

LAST winters' scrub races at Harrisburg are not likely to be repeated at the next session. The lookers on will then miss the great feature of the last season, the parti-colored tandem team of three, which a "merchant prince" from the oil regions handled with equal grace and efficiency. He broke up his stable at the end of the session; sending the Lish Davis' bob-tail to Philadelphia, where he has been condemned as unsound and fit for no further service; the Sam Josephs' nag is found to be groggy and split in the hoof; and the Ames' colt has been turned out to grass in Crawford, hopelessly foundered. We shall not see such a team or such a driver again. The jockeys are all in mourning.

THE WHISKY RING has already revealed its strategy, in the discussion upon the new Tariff Bill. The proposition is to consolidate the taxes, now covering a wide range, but averaging about seventy cents, into one general tax, payable at the distilleries. We heard of this idea, several weeks ago. If it should succeed, the next step would be to move for an advance of the tax to $1.00, or perhaps more—for which also the ring has made preparations by the accumulation of large stocks made at seventy cents, but which would then go on the market with the advance in tax added, resulting in a nice thing for the ring. We have no occasion to criticise the policy of the distillers in this direction: it is quite natural that they should endeavor to procure the most favorable legislation. But the member of Congress who plays into their hands, after the game stands exposed, will merit the sharpest animadversions. It is said that a majority of members agree in this conclusion.

THE OIL CITY Times protests vigorously against the nomination of George K. Anderson, for the Senate, declaring him to be one of the worst of foes to the oil-producing interest, "worse than half a dozen torpedo men and patent casing swindlers combined." He is identified with the "Western Pipe monopoly" and his "election to the Senate would be a public calamity." The Times appeals to all citizens who live by the oil trade to unite in refusing to be parties "to this deadly attack on the prosperity of a great and important industry." It seems that this man Anderson has no strength, political or personal, outside of his own ring. He may buy newspapers—although he sometimes fails—he can buy legislators and politicians; he may even own a State Treasurer; but he cannot buy the masses of plain, honest, decent citizens, who do the biggest part of the Republican voting in Erie and Crawford counties. He will find that out, before the next frost comes to nip his ambition in the bud.

THE SPANISH CORTES touches at last the marrow of the Cuban question. A proposition has been formally offered, on the suggestion of the most intelligent and loyal of the colonists, to inaugurate at once a plan of gradual emancipation of the slaves. It is not easy to foresee a result which shall either comprehend such a scheme, or will ignore all preliminary steps and proclaim a liberty immediate and universal. Spain approaches this business with the same cautious hesitation and timidity which have embarrassed the earlier anti-slavery movements of France, of England, and even of our own Republic. For here, we cannot forget how earnestly and widely the gradual policy was advocated. But such half-way work does not satisfy the logic of events, in the progress of the world's enlightenment, and Spain will yet, we believe, doubt, hesitate, debate, shrink,—and then sweep away the whole accursed institution, root and branch, at one honest blow. Nothing less will disarm the rebellion of its last musket, or satisfy the awakened perceptions of true liberty in the older world of Spain herself.

THE CLAIMS OF OUR UNIVERSITY.

The coming June anniversary of our "Western University of Pennsylvania," will be the fiftieth since the institution was founded. Its warm and effective friends, who, although many, should yet be more, have good reasons for welcoming the semi-centennial day with pride. Through many trials, frequent disappointments, and sincere anxieties, they have held to their steady faith, relaxed no efforts, and never for a moment lowered the high standards of their purpose. For years, the University struggled against a constantly adverse tide of circumstances, the almost resistless under current of which was simply the public indifference to the success or the failure of this admirably designed agency for the instruction of our youth. Until a few years since, so little was done for the University's material interests that its friends came near being disheartened. Yet they persevered. And the end is near, to offer its glowing promises to crown their faithful labor. Shall we say to our readers that, for the support which came at last to strengthen their hands, establishing our University upon the solid base which has finally resolved all doubts into an auspicious confidence, they have been more than one-half indebted to a single citizen, out of whose ample means, and yet more generous heart, its present vigorous life has sprung?

The University is strictly unsectarian in its plans. Seven different denominations are represented in its Board of Trustees and its Faculty. The personnel and the curriculum of its system of instruction provide nearly every needful facility for a liberal, practical and elegant education. Of the Faculty, there are sixteen professors and instructors. In the Collegiate course, there were, last year 63 students, in the Preparatory Classical, 65, and in the English, 113 pupils,—in all 241 of our youth under the most competent instruction.

The courses of study are carefully adapted, under the suggestions of a ripe experience, to cover every path of learning with but a solitary exception. The one thing needed more is the provision of means for giving to the young men of an industrial people a thorough education in technical science, such, for example, as engineering, mining, and the applications of chemistry to all the arts. Then add schools of law and medicine, and we shall have, in fact as well as in name, an University worthy of its appellation, and of this wealthy and intelligent people.

We must have scholarships endowed, for bestowal upon young men of moral and intellectual worth, but who have no private means to unlock the gates of knowledge. And funds should be specifically apart, to fructify in annual prizes as a stimulus to studious competition. The professorships need to be sustained with further endowments, so that the present need for depending on the transient contributions of friends may be entirely obviated. Last, yet by no means least, a library is wanted. The University now includes an observatory which is well equipped with instruments, and its chair stands upon an ample pecuniary foundation. This department has already attracted an high and general regard, as an honor to the city, and an effective auxiliary to the progress of sidereal and meteorological science.

We now approach our point. An additional sum of $100,000, contributed to the University funds will place this institution permanently above want, and effectively qualify it for the broadest usefulness an an instrumentality of instruction. An effort is in progress to secure this sum. A part of it is already pledged. We appeal to the wealth and enlightenment of our people to make up the full sum before the close of the present summer. The trustees will then find themselves able to accomplish a long cherished design, in opening to our young students the wonderfully profitable field of technical study. We shall then possess the requisite facilities for imparting to them not only a liberal and practical education in preparation for active pursuits, but a thorough training for the professions of the civil and mechanical engineer, chemist, metallurgist, mining works and of architecture. As the sole institution of the kind, the only Polytechnic School in the great interior of the continent, there is a special propriety in its establishment in this city, which is already recognized as the main seat of practical art west of the Alleghenies. On this point we need not dwell now, since we have so often urged upon an intelligent community the considerations which support it.

Is there a Pittsburgher who fails to comprehend the superior advantages of skilled labor over any less instructed rivalry? Every week's experiences in the counting-room, as well as among the citizens, practically affords some convincing illustration of the solid value of science in every branch of art. So, elsewhere. In Europe, how thoroughly this is understood! The great Expositions of Paris and London have left nothing unexplained on this point. France, for example, has learned, by experience, years since, that she can compete with her manufacturing rivals only by excellence in practical skill—a skill which is not a mere craft of the hand, but is an intelligent comprehension of those laws of matter to which fresh discoveries are daily adding. Germany recognizes the same truth. All over Central and Western Europe, are springing up new schools for that instruction in technology which shall, in due time, bear its fruit in a successful rivalry of art with other nations beyond the oceans, in the markets of the world, including, by our stolid indifference, even these States. For it is due as much as to the superior success which devises and shapes the works of foreign manufacture, as to that other and more potent cause, the oppressed poverty, of the masses of uneducated operatives, that free-trade seizes its present opportunity to overwhelm American industry with the cheap wares of the foreigner, demanding for this, with specious arguments, the approval even of our own government.

But in all these rivalries, whether domestic or foreign, the issue is to turn much upon brains as well as upon hands. Main strength and comparative ignorance are sure to go down ultimately in every struggle with intelligence. We, who have all elements in our favor, after all their national conditions, have no excuse for suffering ourselves to be beaten on our own ground, with weapons which, with the needful instruction to guide our higher national intelligence, we could wield as the masters of the world. Let us no more delay to work up our raw material of brain as well as of muscle, of mind as well as of matter. Never, in the progress of the race, were yet known a people richer in precisely these rudimental elements of a national strength and independence. On all the globe, never were seen forty millions of people who could favorably compare in natural brain-power with the Americans of this day. Yet for the want of study, investigation, culture, and the popular assimilation of the scientific knowledge which waits for our use we go struggling desperately on in a race where we ought to distance the world without an effort.

Pittsburghers! You have intelligence, enterprise, wealth, public spirit! Sustain your University! Endow it with the small sum which will develop its utmost usefulness! Establish here a school of instruction in the practical arts, which shall be an honor to your city and the admiration of the American people; which shall bring rich returns even to your own bank accounts, and which shall attest your grateful recognition of the dignity of that labor and of the solid usefulness of that technical skill which has already made this to be one of the wealthiest communities in the Republic!

A SWEDISH farmer who was breaking land near Pacific City, Iowa, bared with a plow a huge log of antediluvian timber. Further research showed that an immense forest has at some former time been submerged, and now lies about fourteen inches below the surface. The trees are all lying in one direction, their tops toward the west. They are black as jet, and capable of receiving a high polish. There seems an inexhaustible supply, as experiments for miles around reveal them to the search.

LIFE-COST OF THE REBELLION.

Gen. Shanks, in a recent address to the G. A. R. in Washington, presented a mass of valuable statistics from which we condense the following:

There were in service during the war 83,935 white, and 9 colored officers, and 2,073,112 white, and 178,895 colored enlisted men; 3,096 officers of white troops; 91 of colored troops; 93 of the regular army; and 51 General officers were killed in action, 40,307 enlisted men were killed in action; 2,069 officers and 31,924 privates died of wounds received in action, 1,723 officers died of disease; of these 23 were in prisons, and 121 were General officers; 147,320 privates died of disease, 12,813 of whom were in prisons. From other known causes there died 388 officers, 18 in prisons, and 11,457 privates, 845 in prisons. From unknown causes 1,203 officers died, 49 in prisons; and 54,094 privates, 11,654 in prisons. The whole number of commissioned officers included in the above is 9,314, of whom 209 were General officers, and of enlisted men 285,102, making a total of 294,416 as the whole loss during the war. The deaths may properly be classed by the character of the troops in this way: During the war the rebels captured 7,092 officers, 179,091 privates, and 1,962 citizens. Of these 119 officers, 36,093 privates, and 189 citizens died in captivity; 154,330 were legally paroled, 1,143 were illegally paroled; 2,773 escaped; 401 were recaptured by our forces, and 3,170, including 9 officers, joined the enemy, and 36,401 in all died in Southern prisons.

The following shows the proportions of deaths and casualties of Union officers and soldiers to the number in service, and of Union citizens to the whole number of the same captured:

Killed in action—Officers, 1 in 21 in service; enlisted, 1 in 55.

Killed and died of wounds—Officers, 1 in 13 in service; enlisted, 1 in 28.

Captured—Officers, 1 in 12 in service; enlisted, 1 in 13.

Died while prisoners—Officers, 1 in 64; enlisted, 1 in 5; citizens, 1 in 10.

Escaped from captivity—Officers, 1 in 18; enlisted, 1 in 76.

Recaptured by our forces—Officers, none; enlisted, 1 in 494.

Prisoners who joined the enemy—Officers, 1 in 788; enlisted, 1 in 59.

Total per cent. of deaths in the army—Officers, 1 in 9; enlisted, 1 in 8.

During the war our troops captured 479,547 of the enemy; 35,782 of whom were officers, and 13,535 citizens. Of these there died while prisoners: Officers, 1 in 58; enlisted, 1 in 16; citizens, 1 in 17.

A Tale of Outrage and Retribution.

It is well known that during the revolutionary wars in Northern Italy, in 1848 and 1849, the Austrian commanders caused a number of aristocratic ladies who had participated in some patriotic demonstration, to be brutally whipped by Croatic soldiers in front of the city jails, and in the presence of large crowds of spectators. Thus in Brescia, the Countess of Ferrari, a young married lady of twenty-five, who had collected money for the revolutionary volunteers, was placed before a Military Commission of Austrian officers, and, by direction of Lieutenant Field Marshal Neipperg, sentenced to receive fifty strokes with the verges. On the same afternoon she was led on the Place d'Armes, and, after having been stripped almost naked, and tied to a bench, she received her punishment at the hands of two stalwart Croats, who were armed with formidable bunches of birch rods. Every stroke with them must have been intensely painful, but the Countess did not utter a sound of complaint. At the twenty-fifth stroke, however, she fainted, and when her executioners had inflicted the full number of strokes on her senseless body, she was carried back in an almost lifeless condition to her cell, and thrown on a bundle of straw. She never fully recovered from this terrible castigation, and died a few months afterwards. This is only one case in many. The fathers, husbands, brothers and sons of these martyred Italian ladies formed in the year 1850 a secret league for the purpose of meting out punishment to the brutal Austrian commanders who had ordered their mothers, wives and sisters to be chastised in this cruel manner. They resolved to abide their time, and to pick off the Austrians whenever an opportunity to do so presented itself. Two years ago great excitement was created in Austria by the assassination of an Austrian General, in Illyria, by a young Italian nobleman, who thus avenged his mother, that had been terribly flogged by order of the General. The avenger succeeded in making his escape, and the Austrian government did not take pains to obtain his extradition from the Italian authorities. Not very long since a somewhat similar tragedy took place in the neighborhood of Laybach, where Neipperg, the principal actor in the cruel scene which we have narrated above, owned a country seat. On the 27th of April, a well dressed young stranger presented himself at the chateau and told the servant who opened the door to him that he desired to see Count Neipperg. "The Count is in the garden. Shall I call him?" asked the servant. "No," replied the young stranger; "take me to the garden, and I will see His Excellency there." The servant conducted him to the garden, in rather a remote part of which they met Neipperg, who was promenading with his daughter, a young lady of twenty-two. The stranger, addressing Neipperg, said to him: "I am Count Ferrari! What did you do to my mother?" Neipperg looked in surprise at him. The next moment Count Ferrari plunged a knife into his breast, and despite the frantic attempts of the young Countess Neipperg, succeeded in making his escape.

A Ghastly Experiment.

Experiments made in Paris have proved pretty clearly the fallacy of the idea, put forth at the time of Traupmann's execution, by some French physicians, that a head severed from the body retains life for several hour. The head of a culprit guillotined since the Traupmann affair was delivered to the experimenters five minutes after the execution. The face was then bloodless, of a pale and uniform hue; the lower jaw had fallen, and the mouth was gaping. The features, which were immovable, bore an expression of stupor, but not of pain. The eyes were open, fixed, looking straight before them; the pupils were dilated; the cornea had already commenced to lose its lustre and transparency. Some sawdust still stuck here and there to the face, but there was no vestage of any either on the inner surface of the lips or on the tongue. The opening of the ear was then carefully cleansed, and the experimenters, applying their lips as closely as possible to the orifice, called out three times, in a loud voice, the name of the criminal. Not a feature moved; there was no muscular movement either of the eyes or on the face. A piece of lint, saturated with ammonia, was next placed under the nostrils; there was no contraction of the alæ nor of the face. The conjunctiva of each eye was deeply and several times cauterized with nitrate of silver; the light of a candle was brought close to the cornea, and yet no contraction was observed either in eyelids, eyeballs, or the pupils.

What is Done with Old Tea Grounds in China.

We notice the practice of hoarding up the leaves of tea, drawn in tea shops and private families, and disposing of them to parties who make it a business to remanipulate and prepare them for the foreign market, has made its appearance in Suchow and other interior cities, where large quantities may be seen drying on the street on any bright day. This method of adulteration has been extensively practiced at Shanghai for many years, and some time since provoked a proclamation from the taoutai forbidding it; as in many other instances, however, the prohibition had only a temporary influence, and instead of abating the evil has encouraged its removal, or rather introduction, into other cities. The Chinese often wonder why foreigners like some kinds of their tea so highly colored as to require the application of almost deadly quantities of Prussian blue, and refuse to buy unless so medicated. Chinese tea for domestic use is never drugged, but to the unitiated the marvel is still greater, as to what possible use the exhaustively drawn tea leaves from the shops can be put either by natives or foreigners. It may be true that much of it is disposed of to the poorer classes with a slight mixture of good tea, but as a general rule it is designed and prepared expressly for the foreign market.—Shanghai News Letter.

THERE was a desperate shooting affray at Maysville between plow-shop hands from the factories of Hall and Baldwin, growing out of a political quarrel over a nomination for Sheriff, in which two men were killed and several wounded. The particulars have not yet come to hand.

THE BURNING OF QUEBEC.

Three Hundred Houses in Ruins--Fifty Dwellings in Flames at Once--Loss of Life.

[From the Quebec Chronicle, May 24.]

About one o'clock this morning the alarm sounded from the box in the vicinity of St. Roch's Church, which called the fire brigade promptly to the spot. Before the water could be obtained the flames, fanned by a strong easterly wind, had communicated to a number of houses in Crown and Queen streets, and it became evident that no efforts could save St. Roch's from a conflagration equal to those of 1845 and 1865. Our reporter lost no time in reaching the spot, and on his arrival found the house of Mr. Berube enveloped in flames, and burning with such fierceness as to drive the fire to the opposite side of the street. The people in the vicinity commenced moving their furniture, etc., to places of safety. The sight in some cases was most appalling. Women, with barely a stitch of clothing, were met at every turn, most of them carrying their children, and rushing about in a wild and insane-like manner. As the wind rose the flames gathered strength and intensity, leaping with fearful violence from one building to another, sweeping before them everything of a combustible nature. The wind blowing at the time from the east, directed the tendency of the flames toward the Marine and General Hospital, running through Queen and King streets, down as low as Prince Edward street, which is nearly on a line with the water's edge, and at the time our reporter left—3:30 this morning—fears were entertained of the burning of the Marine Hospital. In an upward direction, the fire had gained as far as Jacques Cartier Hall, on St. Francis street, and in this direction carried everything before it up the street known as Old Bridge street. The projecting eaves of the hall caught fire in several places, but owing to their height a sufficiently strong pressure of water could not be obtained to reach the spot where the fire had caught. Ladders were spliced and hose raised, but not before a great deal of time had been lost. When we left this section the water was playing, and there remained a probability of saving the building. At Old Bridge street, which runs from Vallier street to the river St. Charles, a number of citizens directed by priests set to work to tear down all the fencing, galleries, railings and small buildings that could be disposed of by hand. The fire continued to sweep along with terrible force through King and Queen streets, where there were over fifty houses burning at once. It is clearly established that the principal cause of the calamity was the failure of the municipal authorities to carry out the laws relating to the construction of wooden buildings. The moment the fire commenced to gain headway it would exceed human efforts to control or check it. The street in some places exhibited a most awful appearance. A perfect whirlwind of fire might be seen in every direction, there being no efficient obstacle to offer as a barrier to the flames. The fire brigade worked well, and was ably assisted by the St. Sauveur Company. The citizens in some respects worked well. We noticed, however, that many of the St. Roch's people were indifferent and careless in giving assistance.

LATEST.

Rain began to fall about 4:30. The military were sent down about the same time, and the fire was at last checked. It is estimated that five hundred buildings are destroyed. Baldwin's large wooden building, in which two large vessels were under construction, is burned, but the fire was prevented from spreading to adjoining yards. The fire was happily marked by but few accidents, and those of an unimportant nature. Nearly three hundred houses were burnt. Two ships on the stocks in Baldwin's ship yard, and a small chapel attached to the St. Roch's church, were destroyed. The burnt district extends from Crown street to Bridge street, and from Queen street to Joseph street. The insurances are, as correctly ascertained this afternoon, as follows: Home, of Connecticut, $16,000; Quebec, $120,000; Phoenix, $16,000; North British, $8,000; Royal, $30,000; London Corporation, $5,000; Imperial, $5,000; London and Liverpool, $15,000; British America, $10,000; Provincial, $12,000; Western of Canada, $20,000. This afternoon a man named Lanfrance, while working in his burnt lot, was struck on the head by a stone from a falling chimney, and was killed instantly. Last night two children were badly injured, while escaping from a house, by the wheels of a passing cart. Raining heavily.

Fearful Crime in Russia---The Murder of Prince Louis of Arenberg.

Mail advices from St. Petersburg give particulars of the assassination of Prince Louis of Arenberg, military attache of the Austrian Legation at St. Petersburg, of which the Atlantic cable telegraph informed us.

On Friday, May 6, the Prince requested his valet to wake him up at half past seven next morning, so that he might have time to finish his correspondence. On Saturday morning, about five o'clock, the groom returning from service at the house of one of his master's friends, knocked at the gate of his master's house, opening on the Fontaka, but could not get admittance. Then he went round the place, and when he reached the entrance opening on the Millionnaia he met with the porter, who at once opened the door and the groom went to bed. At half past seven the valet-de-chambre entered his master's bedroom; he was much astonished at the confusion prevailing in the room, and as he did not see the Prince in the bed, which was turned upside down, he was frightened, left the room hastily, and called the groom and porter, with whom he returned to his master's bedroom.

Then they found the Prince's corpse under the pillow cases and blankets; he had been dead some hours; the body was tied to the bed by the ropes torn down from the blinds: the legs were firmly tied with a shirt twisted and knotted; the mouth and the nose were covered with a neckerchief tied tightly over them. Subsequently it was discovered that the neckerchief had belonged to one of the murderers.

It seems that the Prince returned home at half-past two, coming from the Yacht Club. According to his custom, and to prevent his servants from waiting up for him, he had himself opened the door of the house and shut it after him. It was not through that door that the murderer or murderers got admittance into the house. The Prince did not usually lock the door of his bedroom. It seems also that when his valet went to bed he did not lock the entrance of the corridor leading to a door opening on the yard. Therefore access to the bedroom was easy. The state of the body led to the supposition that the crime had been perpetrated at about half past three o'clock in the morning. Either the Prince was in his first sleep or reading a newspaper found near his bed. Nevertheless, from the state of the room, it was evident that a serious struggle took place. The lamp was thrown down, and the contents of a match box were on the carpet. It is very likely that the Prince was thrown upon his bed, where he was gagged and strangled. Theft was the motive of the crime, for many articles of jewelry have disappeared.

A Moujik, Gourl Chickskow, has been arrested on serious suspicion. He cannot explain how he spent the night from Friday to Saturday, and rouble notes, with blood spots on them, were found on him.

[From Galignani's Messenger, of Paris, May 14.]

The razors of the Prince, several French gold coins, a gold watch, and some articles of jewelry had disappeared. His money and papers were contained in a box which the criminals had not been able to force open, and which they had evidently been afraid to carry off, as the police are accustomed to stop persons found in the streets at night with parcels in their possession. A laborer named Gouri Chichskow has been arrested on suspicion; this man had worked for the Prince in February last, but had since been imprisoned for theft; he had called on the day before the crime to receive what was due to him. He is not able to give a satisfactory account of the manner in which he passed the night of the 6th, and some of his fellow lodgers declare that he left home at six in the evening and did not return until the following morning. A sum of about twenty roubles (three francs, seventy-five cents each) in paper money was found on him. He denies all complicity in the murder, but admits that while in prison he had mentioned that the Prince's house was badly guarded against thieves. A cap found in the bed is identified as having belonged to the convict under detention at the same time as Chichskow. The way in which the murderers effected an entrance still remains a mystery. The apartment over that occupied by the Prince was unlet, and they may have remained concealed there during a part of the previous day.

ON Sunday morning an unknown man was found dead in Lincoln Park, Chicago. It is thought that his name is Mackenzie and that he poisoned himself.

IN Harrison county, Indiana, some time ago, Joseph Aimes had been arrested and imprisoned for killing some pigs belonging to Stephen Aultman, and has always since threatened revenge. A few days ago he was heard to say that he would send Aultman's soul to h—l. On Thursday he took his rifle and proceeded to a field where Aultman and his family were at work, and without a word of warning shot him in the bowels, causing death in a few minutes. As Aultman fell, he shouted to a son, a young man of twenty, that Himes had killed him. Himes, after he shot him, jumped over the fence and clubbing his rifle, struck the dying man, literally crushing in the skull. At this moment young Aultman arrived with a hoe upon his shoulder. Himes dealt him a savage blow on the head, fracturing his skull. The boy fell to the ground, but held fast to the hoe, and while lying on the ground, apparently in convulsions struck out wildly and fiercely, hitting Himes on the top of the head, cleaving the skull in twain. Himes fell dead near the boy's murdered father without uttering a word.

THREE REQUISITES OF HEALTH.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, there would not be doctors enough to attend them, nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz.: a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor is it necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise. This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep,) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative, taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific, or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others, are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized. It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time; and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

LOAN
Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Co.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad is completed and running from RICHMOND, VA., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Virginia, 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio river, 200 miles further making in all 427 miles.
In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the WONDERFUL COAL DEPOSITS OF THE KANAWHA REGION IN WEST VIRGINIA. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the IRON ORES OF VIRGINIA AND OHIO, and the WESTERN, SOUTH WESTERN AND EASTERN MARKETS.
When completed it will connect the SUPERIOR HARBOR FACILITIES OF THE CHESAPEAKE BAY with reliable navigation on the Ohio river, and thus with the ENTIRE SYSTEM OF RAILROAD AND WATER TRANSPORTATION OF THE GREAT WEST AND SOUTHWEST.
It will make a SHORT, EASY, CHEAP and FAVORABLE ROUTE from the WEST to the SEA and will command a LARGE SHARE OF THE ENORMOUS FREIGHTS seeking transportation to the coast.
It will thus become one of the most IMPORTANT AND PROFITABLE EAST AND WEST TRUNK LINES OF RAILROAD in the country, and command a trade of immense value.
The completed portion of the Road is doing a PROFITABLE AND INCREASING BUSINESS, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)
The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a FIRST MORTGAGE UPON THE ENTIRE LINE, PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENTS, WORTH WHEN COMPLETED AT LEAST $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhoea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, May 31, 1870.

The leading grain markets are being watched with considerable interest just now, particularly Chicago, as there is more speculating and manipulating carried on there than in any other market in the country. Factions and cliques exist there almost all the time, and in many instances, by strategy and manipulating, these "rings" exert enough power to put prices up or down to meet their interests. There are a good many scalawag operators in grain in that place, men who will do almost anything to make money, so long as they can keep clear of the authorities. We clip the following from the Chicago Tribune of Monday:

"There was a fair shipping demand, but the liberal receipts gave the advantage to buyers, while options were weakened by the near approach of the end of the month; the market is decidedly long, large purchases for June having been made during the recent excitement, and the holders grew anxious to place it, so that they may not be obliged to pay out the cash next Wednesday. The Milwaukee longs appeared to be in the same fix. Both markets were, therefore, weak, when outside influences tended to strength. But it should be noted that the retrogressive movement in prices here, accompanied by Eastern firmness is just what is wanted to allow the shippers to operate, the margin having been hitherto so much against them that our warehouses are fuller than ever before at this season, and some of them actually hold more wheat now than they did last November. And even this statement is tame by the side of the face that the warehousemen themselves have done a large part of the shipping this season in self-defence, to make room for receipts."

APPLES—Season almost over and the market is nearly bare. We continue to quote at $5@7½ per bbl, for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Quiet and unchanged with a supply fully up to the demand. We quote at 15@20, for fair to strictly prime fresh.

BROOM CORN—Demand very slow; prices nominally unchanged, 12 to 16c.

BROOMS—Store prices; Fancy, $5.50; No. 1, $4.50; No. 2, $4; No. 3, $3.50; Common, $2.50@3.

BEANS—Dull but nominally unchanged, $1.50@1.75 per bushel.

CHEESE—Choice old New York State Factory, 17; New York State Goshen, (new) 16@16½; Ohio Goshen at 15@15½.

CORNMEAL—Demand light and prices unchanged, 95@$1 per bushel.

CEMENT—Sales of Louisville Hydraulic at $3@3½ per bbl.

CARBON OIL—The demand continues light while prices are unchanged; 24 in jobbing lots for standard brands.

DRIED FRUIT—There is a fair demand for the better grades, while common and inferior is dull and in good supply. We continue to quote Apples, at 5@6½ cts; Peaches at 6@7 cts for quarters, and 8@9 for halves.

EGGS—Notwithstanding the arrivals continue liberal, prices are maintained at 19@20. One house received over 100 bbls to-day.

FEATHERS—Very quiet and the demand is always very light at this season of the year; live geese feathers still quoted at 80@85 to the trade.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and unchanged; there is a continued steady local demand but the supply is fully equal to the requirement of the home trade. We continue to quote western flours, in store, at $5.25@5.75 for spring; $5.50@6 for winter and $7@7.50 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $5.

GRAIN—The arrivals of wheat continue liberal, and as might be expected, the millers are getting very "bearish" and are clamorous for concessions. We now quote fair to prime red at $1.15@1.18, and choice might bring $1.20. Oats continue dull and unsettled, and it is difficult to quote correctly; we are reported a sale of 1 car to go east, at 50, and we hear of some sales as having been made on wharf at 48. Corn is also dull, and the supply is getting larger, though the receipts are not very heavy. Quotations may be fairly given at 80 to 83 for ear, and 87 to 88 for shelled—sale one car at the outside quotation. Rye is dull and quoted at 90 in first hands, buyers furnishing sacks—possibly a round lot would bring 92 or 93. For barley there is little or no inquiry though the offerings continue light.

HAY—The supply in the Allegheny market to-day was larger and with a diminished demand, the market was exceedingly dull and prices lower. Sales were made all the way from $10 to $18, mostly at $10 to $14.

HEMP—Sales of undressed Kentucky Hemp at $167.

HUSKS—Corn husks, 3@3¼ cts.

LARD OIL—City brands quoted at $1.26@1.28 for extra No. 1, and a well-known western brands at $1.30@1.31.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $2.25 per bbl, and eastern at $1.75.

POTATOES—The market is rather firmer under the influence of diminished arrivals and a slightly improved demand, but as yet there is no quotable change in prices, 35 to 40c per bushel.

PEARL BARLEY—No. 4, 5½c per lb; No. 3, 5⅞; No. 1, 6¼. Oat Meal—A & B per bbl. of 200 lbs, $10; for half bbl, 100 lbs, $5.50.

PROVISIONS—Market steady but unchanged. Plain Shoulders, 13¾; Sugar Cured (canvassed.) 15¾; Ribbed Sides, 16⅜; Short Rib, 17⅛; Clear Sides, 17¾; Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams, 20⅛; Breakfast Bacon, 18, plain, and 19, Canvassed; Lard, 17@17⅛, in tierces; and 18@18⅛ in kegs and buckets. Mess Pork, $30⅛. Dried Beef, higher, 21½, Canvassed.

PEANUTS—Dull. Tennessee, 8@9 cts.

SEEDS—There is no inquiry for either Timothy or Clover Seeds and the season may be regarded as over. Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2.15, with but very little offering, and a round lot might bring $2.20.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, May 31, 1870.

The stagnation in the oil trade still continues and there is but little indication at present of any improvement. Prices have been remarkably steady during the past week or two the fluctuations either way having been unusually slight, but unfortunately the market has been and is still in that peculiar condition, that it has been impossible almost to do any business. There is and has been all along considerable inquiry for refined, mainly for early deliveries, but refiners could not sell at the prices bid, and there is an almost total absence of anything like speculation. Unlike last year, contracts now mean oil not differences, and this is probably the best feature to notice in the trade at the present time; notwithstanding the sales thus far this year will not begin to compare with those of the same time 1869, our exports are considerably larger.

CRUDE.

The market is dull and rather weak though without quotable change. Sale 1,000 bbls spot at 12¾; 2,000 seller June at 12⅜; subsequently June was offered at 12¾, without finding buyers, and seller 60 days at 12⅜. Lines for June or July to December, 12¾; seller all year, 11¾@11⅞; buyer all year, 13¾@14.

REFINED.

The refined market, also, was very dull but without important change. Spot quoted at 26¾@26⅞; June, 27; July, 27⅜; June to August, 27¾; August to December, 28; buyer all year offered at 29⅜. Sale 1,000 bbls July at 27⅜.

PITTSBURGH LUMBER MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, May 31, 1870.

The lumber business is devoid of anything specially important. As a general thing trade is moderately active, and stocks both in river and yards are reported comparatively small. It is stated that the stocks in yard are very meagre, compared with this time last year, and the amount afloat, is pretty well reduced, and the receipts thus far this season fall considerably behind those of the same time in 1869. Pine timber is quoted at 10@15c per cubic foot; Hemlock at 8@10. Pine boards, $17@20; Hemlock, $10@12. No. 1 18 inch shingles, $5.50; No. 2 do, $3.50. Lath, $3.25. RIVER NEWS.

The river was again receding with scant four feet in the channel last evening by the Monongahela marks.

There was considerable rain yesterday afternoon accompanied by lightning and thunder.

The Arlington was due last evening and will depart again to-day for Cincinnati. She is off her regular day, occasioned by some necessary repairs to her machinery last week, and the low water prevented her from making up the lost time. As is well-known, Capt. Moore is always particular to leave here on his regular day, but sometimes delays are unavoidable.

The Mary Davage, Messenger and Ironsides are in port but will hardly venture out until there is more water.

The Wauanita, Capt. J. B. Conway, is announced to depart for St. Louis to-day and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Mr. Dunlevy, a very courtious and attentive gentleman, will be found in the office.

The Julia No. 2 departed for Zanesville last evening, and the St. Charles got off for Cincinnati early in the afternoon.

Business continues slow at the landing and there is not likely to be much of an improvement until there is more water.

The Waynesburg Repository in noticing the advent of the Belle into the Monongahela river trade, after paying quite a compliment to her officers, says: "As usual the old line went into spasms about it, and sent out the old Franklin to oppose her, which gives us three boats every other day. We should think the people have by this time learned the propriety of patronizing an independent boat. All monopolies are odious, and oppressive, and this old line is no exception. When once rid of opposition, they become arrogant in their manners, and exorbitant in their charges. The people have to take whatever they can get and pay dear for it. Moreover, the trade on the Monongahela is too large and important to be controlled by any one company."

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette: Capt, A. C. Brown, of the Kanawha packet Spray, was, on Saturday, brought before United Commissioner Halliday, on the charge of violating the navigation laws by carrying hay and straw, without lawful cover or protection from fire. He gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance, June 4th, and was released.

—The Mollie Gratz was seized by the United States Marshal at Portland on Friday upon the writ of four of a former crew for wages to the amount of $280. The debt was contracted while the boat was running in White river. Capt. Paul, the owner, gave bond, and the boat was released.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial: The Belle Vernon reports meeting the towboat Grey Hound lying at the bank, just above Ashland, yesterday morning, without steam. She also reports the N. J. Bigley lying just above Parkersburg, having broken a T-head.

—The steamer Minnie, which was loading at New Orleans for Cincinnati, found it rather difficult to secure her complement of freight, and abandoned the trip and turned over her received freight to the Glasgow.

—The Natrona, bound from New Orleans for Opelousas, broke her larboard shaft opposite Plaquemine, Saturday night, and on return to New Orleans transferred her freight to steamer Lizzie Hopkins.

—The Clara Scott has been chartered by the Evansville, Paducah and Tennessee river Company to run in connection with the Sam Orr, until the new boat, now building in Cincinnati, is ready.

—On the Portsmouth and Pittsburgh packet Granite State, recently, the excursionists presented the boat with a bible, and the ladies presented Capt. Wash Kerr with a solid gold breastpin.

—Over 100,000 bushels of wheat have been brought down the Mississippi river by steamboats this season. The amount brought down to the same date last year was about 20,000 bushels.

The Meigs county Press says that the Pomeroy Salt Transportation Company have purchased the tow boat Sam Roberts, if the Pittsburgh owners agree to the sale.

—David M. Hamilton, a well-known river engineer, died at 8 o'clock Friday night, at the residence of his brother, Capt. John H. Hamilton, of Gallipolis.

—The Lady Pike sunk a barge containing 6,460 bushels of wheat by collision with the bridge at Burlington, Iowa, last Tuesday. Total loss.

—On the 21st inst. the U. S. Marshal at Helena, Ark., seized the steamer W. R. Arthur for violating the laws governing passenger steamers.

—The Advance is lying at the Nine Mile Ripple, where she will probably remain until released from her position by a rise in Wabash river.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicine.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect, the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, billious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. de27:d&T

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

HOME NEWS.

Mayor Callow had fifteen visitors yesterday morning. He discharged them all.

Error.—Jonathan Heckert was the name of the owner of the big calf, in McCandless township, a notice of which we published yesterday.

Prolific.—Mr. William Wilz, of East Liberty, is the owner of a fine cow, which gave birth to three healthy calves Monday night. This beats our last veal item.

A Pittsburgher Dead.—Mr. Charles Ihmsen, a leading glass manufacturer of this city, died on Sunday evening last, at Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he had gone to recuperate his health.

Last night a representative of the rural districts saw the "elephant" at the Varieties, Penn street, to the tune of $100, that being the amount his purse—taken by the light-fingered—contained.

In our notice of John Gillespie, yesterday morning, we unintentionally said he cleaned carpets. Mr. G. does not clean carpets, but is prepared at all times to sweep chimneys, set grates, &c., in good style.

The Performing Man with the lions at the Circus, now located in the Allegheny Diamond, was bitten by one of the gentle creatures on Monday evening. He narrowly escaped being made a meal of. His injuries are not serious.

Stock Sales.—Tuesday evening, May 31st, by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer, at his stock sales rooms, 106 Smithfield street, was sold:

Keystone Bank	$96 00
German Insurance Company	39 00

Col. Egan in his new store has replenished his stock with a large lot of new and popular works, standard in their departments, which he is closing off at half the usual prices. Call on him at Smithfield street, near Virgin alley.

The Black Bear Hotel.—At two o'clock this afternoon this valuable property will be sold at auction. This is a rare chance to purchase real estate in one of the best locations for business in the city. Do not fail to attend the sale.

Young Scamps.—To-day Daniel Collins and John Burn, two lads, will have a hearing before Alderman Koeing. They are charged with stealing a lot of rings valued at $7 from the variety store of A. Swoger, Penn street, Twelfth ward.

John McDowell yesterday charged John and Margaret Garraty with obtaining $40 worth of groceries at his establishment on Webster avenue, by falsely representing they had one hundred dollars in the bank. The Garraty's will appear before the Alderman for a hearing to-day.

Keystone Ware.—The verdict of public opinion fully settles the fact of the superiority of the Keystone ware over all others, for cheapness, beauty of finish and durability. The warehouse for this excellent ware, manufactured by Messrs. Kier & Co., is at No. 363 Liberty street. Purchasers should call and see it.

Personal.—We had the pleasure of a visit to our sanctum yesterday from our friend, James M. Ferguson, Esq., one of the editors of the Christian Instructor, and a member of the large book printing establishment of George & Co. Mr. Ferguson is a most genial and agreeable gentleman, and his visits will always be appreciated.

It is unpleasant to be stopped on the road with a team, pulled from the wagon and then kicked and maltreated generally. Under such circumstances it is not wonderful that Anthony Moore made information before Alderman Koenig against John Lindsay for so ill-treating his driver, William Gill. The magistrate desires to see Lindsay.

Fenianism.—An argument on Fenianism took place yesterday afternoon on Canal street. Patrick Gallagher and James Young were the participants, and Gallagher was floored metaphorically and literally. The parties subsequently came to kindlier feelings by dividing the costs in an assault and battery suit before Alderman O'Donnell.

Captain W. C. Cooke, of the Fifth ward, Allegheny, lost a valuable horse, Decoration Day. He tied the animal in front of a restaurant in the Allegheny Diamond, and went into the establishment for lunch. When he came out again his property was gone, whether stolen or strayed he cannot tell, but the former method was, in all probability, that by which it disappeared.

John Blondin stated to Alderman McMasters yesterday that he had entered John Forney's saloon in the Diamond on Decoration Day to get a drink, when he was ordered out; not complying with the demand he was attacked, beat, kicked in the eye and otherwise unpleasantly decorated. The accused will have an opportunity of explaining matters before the Aderman to-day.

Bathing.—We have been repeatedly requested to call the attention of the authorities of Allegheny City to the fact that the Allegheny river, from Pine street to the upper end of Herr's Island, is used as a public bathing place at all hours of the day by boys and young men who outrage all decency by all manner of vulgarities. Is there no way to abate the nuisance?

Mr. John Megraw, No. 45 Ninth street, deals wholesale and retail in tobacco, snuff, cigars and all articles in that trade. Country merchants will find it an advantage to deal with him. His stock is fresh and very large, and his terms cannot be excelled. All lovers of the weed should patronize Megraw. He can appreciate their wants, and can supply them immediately with the best article manufactured.

Cruelty to Animals.—A driver by the name of Foley, driving a horse and mule attached to a cart, hauling brick from the Allegheny Wharf at the foot of Second street, yesterday, abused the animals shamefully. He overloaded them and because they could not pull the load beat them over the head with the but of a heavy whip. Such a brute should not be entrusted with the care of animals possessed of more common sense than the driver.

Foreign Delegates.—Our much esteemed friend, William Semple, Esq., one of our noble merchant princes, drove the foreign delegates to the United Presbyterian General Assembly, now in session in this city, to his country seat in McClure township, yesterday afternoon. After spending a few hours pleasantly, as they could not fail to do, having such a generous host, the party returned in the evening to the residence of Mr. Semple in Allegheny.

Plucked His Beard.—Decoration Day attracted to the city many denizens from the rural districts, among whom was Robert Killain. Killain succeeded in getting on a "tare" while in the city, and meeting George Sillsman on Liberty street, he at once conceived an ardent fancy for George's patriarchal beard and attempted to transfer it, in which he was successful to the extent of a handfull. Alderman O'Donnell subsequently arrested him on George's information for assault and battery. He was held for a hearing.

Ice Cream.—The ice cream season has fairly opened, and lovers of the delicious article are having their tastes gratified. Among the best places in the city for this purpose is the popular ladies' and gents' confectionery, Youngson's, corner of Smithfield street and Diamond alley. In addition to the attraction of the best ice cream, cakes, and the delicate et ceteras, this establishment is provided with a sumptuous dining-room, where at any hour of the day ladies and gentlemen can appease their appetites with the daintiest luxuries of the season. Ye hungry one's call at Youngson's.

Mr. Henry Paulus again finds himself and his shoe store in the old place. Mr. Paulus has spared no expense in rebuilding his house, the front of which, at No. 124 Ohio avenue, is in modern and elegant style, while the interior arrangements answer all the latest requirements of these progressive times. His stock of goods—boots, shoes and gaiters—is the coo, new and well chosen. Mr. Paulus believes in the adage, "Live and let live," and has fixed his prices accordingly. Whoever wants good material and good work in his shoes should go to Paulus' to make sure of finding it.

Speck of Riot.

Yesterday afternoon officer Crawford while patroling Railroad street, in the Ninth ward, observed a man acting in a disorderly manner. He attempted to take him into custody when the companions of his prisoner, about a dozen in number came to the rescue. The officer was badly beaten and the fellow released. A crowd collected about the place but before assistance had arrived the assailants all escaped. Some of them are known.

European Tourists.

The following parties will sail on the Inman steamer City of Brooklyn, next Saturday: Mr. H. J. Murdoch, Mrs. H. J. Murdoch and six children; Miss A. Hutton, Mr. Daniel Wilson, Miss Anna Wilson, Mr. Daniel Wilson, Mr. Alexander Chambers, of A. & D. H. Chambers, Mr. Simon Johnston, the well known druggist, Mr. John G. Stephenson, of Arbuthnot, Shannon & Co., Mr. C. McCaw, Mr. Robert Moore, and Mr. A. W. Gittens, (formerly of this city, now of New York.) The Anchor Steamship India sailing same day, has among her passengers Rev. Joseph Hunter, of Wilkinsburg, Mrs. Hunter, Miss Lizzie Hunter, Miss Letitia Hunter and Miss Letitia Deniston.

Decoration day was celebrated by some festive parties at a picnic held in Iron City Park. Matters moved along smoothly enough until about two o'clock, when a slight misunderstanding between two of the attendants, amounting to a knock down, ended in a general row. Tables were overturned, the dancing ceased, and in about ten minutes a free fight was in full progress. The parties continued the exercise until near six o'clock. Women and men were engaged indiscriminately, four females being distinguished for Amazonian feats. One of the men, David Carroll, was dangerously injured. A young girl, whose name we could not ascertain, was dragged from a carriage, and very badly beaten. The fight continued until the combatants were completely exhausted. It is said there were about a dozen police on the ground, not one of whom interfered. The picnic season was thus inaugurated by one of the most disgraceful riots on record.

U. P. CHURCH.

General Assembly—Sixth Day's Proceedings—Church Extension—Sabbath Schools—Foreign Missions—China Mission—Papal Baptism.

SIXTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The delegates assembled in the usual place at nine o'clock, A. M., yesterday, and a half hour was spent in devotional exercises.

The Assembly met at half-past nine o'clock and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The roll of members was called, after which the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Robert Cooper, of the Presbytery of Freeport, was admitted as a delegate.

Rev. D. F. Barnes, chairman of the Committee on Church Extension, made a report relative to various matters referred to them by the Assembly. The committee, among other things, recommended the election of a Secretary to the Board of Church Extension, to serve for three years, at an annual salary of $500. Entered upon the journal.

Rev. Robert Armstrong presented the report of the Committee on Home Missions, which was entered upon the journal.

On motion, the consideration of the subject of Home Missions was made the special order of the day for half past two o'clock.

Rev. J. R. Johnson, Chairman of the Committee on Sabbath Schools, presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That a discussion of Sabbath Schools, special attention being given to uniform lessons, blackboard exercises and other improved methods of teaching, be made the order of the day for Wednesday evening at 7½ o'clock.

The resolution was adopned.

Rev. J. D. Turner, Chairman of the Committee on Devotional Exercises, presented a resolution appointing Rev. J. R. Johnson, Moderator Alternate, to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Rev. Mr. Pollock, Chairman of the Special Committee on Secret Societies, presented a report relative to the communication from the National Association, opposed to secret societies to meet in Cincinnati next month, requested the appointment of delegates from this Assembly. The committee were opposed to the appointment of delegates.

The report was adopted.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

The special order of the day being called for Dr. Pratt, corresponding delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, was introduced and spoke at some length. The speaker confined his remarks, principally, to the subject of Union. He said a spirit of Union pervaded the entire Assembly, which but recently closed its labors in Philadelphia. The Church was in favor of a union of the Presbyterian family, and he believed the day was not far distant when that grand object would be fully consummated. He said it was not the difference between the several Evangelical churches that made them christian churches, but it was the common truths. There was not enough truth in the differentia to save a single soul; any man's soul would starve upon it. The speaker concluded by presenting to the Assembly the most hearty congratulations of the Reunited Presbyterian Church.

The Moderator responded to the remarks in a brief and appropriate address.

At the request of Rev. Mr. Blair the Assembly joined in singing a part of the 142d Psalm.

Rev. Mr. Blair moved that the subject of Christian Union be made the order of the day for half past seven o'clock.

The motion was amended so as to make the discussion of the report of the Board of Foreign Missions the order of that day. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Getty moved that the Assembly now proceed to consider the report of the Board of Foregn Missions.

This motion elicited considerable discussion.

A motion was made to reconsider the action of the Assembly in the matter of Home Missions. Adopted.

In order to settle the difficulty a substitute resolving to proceed with the transaction of unfinished business was offered and adopted.

THE UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Rev. H. G. Wallace, Second Clerk, stated that the first minute of unfinished business was the consideration of rule 71, upon which there were a number of amendments.

The rule was adopted.

Rules 72, 73 and 74 were then adopted.

A motion to constitute a committee on leave of absence was voted down.

An amendment was offered changing the name of the Judicial Committee to "Committee on Judiciary."

The amendment was adopted.

The rules as a whole were then taken up and adopted.

The report of the Committee on the Validity of Papal Baptism, which had been before the Assembly at a previous session, was taken up, the question being on a motion to postpone the adoption of it for another year and publish it for the information of the church.

Considerable discussion ensued, after which the vote was taken and the motion was lost by a vote of 89 to 44.

The Assembly then adjourned under the rules, Bev. Robert Armstrong leading in prayer.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Assembly met at half-past 2 o'clock, and was opened with prayer by Rev. Wm. Bruce, of Baltimore.

A motion was made to suspend the order of the day, the consideration of the subject of Home Missions, to take up the consideration of Foreign Missions. The order was suspended, and the Assembly proceeded to consider the subject of Foreign Missions.

The third resolution, which approves of the Constitution for an association of the members of the Mission in Egypt, for all business outside of Presbyterial matters, was approved.

The fourth resolution was then taken up. It directs that all efforts to raise funds for particular missionary purposes shall be made only with the knowledge and co-operation of the Assembly or the Board. Leave was granted to the committee to withdraw this motion for the present.

The fifth resolution recommended all churches to have stated seasons for conference or sermons, and prayer in reference to missionary work, and the spread of the gospel throughout the world, and that efforts be made to place information in regard to this subject in the hands of all the families and members of the whole Church. It was adopted unanimously.

THE CHINA MISSION.

The subject of the China Mission was taken up. The reports of the board and that of the Committee on the Board were read at length, and a resolution was passed allowing any member of the Board to make remarks in relation to the matter of the Mission to China.

Dr. Cooper did not see any propriety in continuing the mission in China, unless there is a new state of things inaugurated. He would like to hear Brother Nevin, who had returned from the field, and was present in the house, before he would say more.

Dr. Dales thought the report presented all that was necessary. The Board felt no deeper personal interest in any mission than in that of China. It had not been sustained as it should have been.

Mr. William Getty was of the opinion that this was the time to clear up misunderstandings. He had been a member of the Board for six years. The church never manifested that interest in the China mission that she should have done. He hoped that if the church should resolve to continue the mission she would support it liberally.

Rev. A. G. Wallace moved that Rev. J. C. Nevin, returned missionary from China, be requested to address the Assembly on the subject of the China Mission.

Mr. Nevin then ascended the platform. He had not physical strength enough, he said, to deliver an address. When he read the action of the Assembly last year he thought no report would be expected. He expected to make out a report on his voyage home, but was unable to do so. He may have mistaken the action of the Assembly. But he thought he could not. He thought that the action of the Assembly was an intimation that the Mission would be transferred to another body. His co-laborer, Mr. McKelvey, had no alternative but to go to India, or return home. He chose the latter alternative. He could not have settled up the matters of the Mission and arranged the question of property sooner than he did. Their title there was good.

The Church had done itself a great wrong in abandoning the field. They would do honor to themselves by taking it up again. China was an important field. The one-third of the whole population of the world is there. The Chinese were being brought to their very doors. Immigrants are being thrown on the shores of the United States by the thousands. The church could sustain three missions in the country whence these immigrants come. This she is perfectly able to do. Let her take it up, and sustain it with energy and determination. The men can certainly be found.

In reply to a question of Dr. Easton, Mr. Nevin said it was his firm determination to return to China in whatever way God in his providence might order.

Rev. Mr. Crowe, asked if there was not a large city in China not occupied by some other church as a missionary field, in which they might carry on their operations.

Mr. Nevin responded that there were eight hundred thousand inhabitants in Canton alone. The fifteen or more missionaries that are there are not sufficient to carry on the work. In the province of Canton alone there were one hundred and thirteen millions.

The Chinese are by nature an intelligent people. But their civilization differs from ours. It does not rest on the same foundation, Bible Christianity. Their hatred of the gospel has grown out by their hatred to foreigners.

If the work was carried on for another generation in China there would be great fruits reaped. He was willing to labor fifty years in China if spared, (Applause) to accomplish this end.

Rev. Mr. Alexander asked what good would result from the Burlingame treaty?

Mr. Nevin said that treaty was "a step backward." They had all they wished under English laws.

Rev. A. G. Wallace asked whether it was better to carry on the missionary work in this country or in China?

Mr. Nevin responded—"I say most unhesitatingly in China, where the missionary will meet the substantial classes of the people."

In reply to a question, he said he wished to see two men in Canton and as many more as they could send who might go into the country. In this way they could carry on the missionary work with comparative efficiency. The property is worth $5,000, and cost $4,000. The lot cost $800. A chapel, two houses and a school house in the city would be necessary at present.

He wished that one or two missionaries were there this day. It is the duty of the church to send them. It will require about two years before a man can enter upon his work efficiently.

He thought it was better to send them directly to the field at once. This would be better than to place missionaries under instructions in this country. They would not make the same progress in learning the language here that they would there. The sooner they hear the tone sounded in the ear the sooner they will learn the language. There is great variety in the dialects of the Chinese languages even in the same province. The proportion of the people that can read is less than is supposed. There is a large class who can read and cannot understand what they read. They have to refer to the lexicon. Foreign and religious literature is being introduced more extensively every year into China.

The resolutions of the Committee on the Board were read, when Rev. A. G. Wallace said he was opposed to referring the matter back to the Board. The great question was, "shall the mission be continued or abandoned?" If it was a question as to whether they should open a new mission it would be different. He once thought they should concentrate more. He did not think so now. A farmer might sow too many fields, and he might sow too few. They were becoming intimately associated with China in the establishing of steamship lines, and the laying of telegraphs.

On motion it was resolved that the Assembly adjourn to meet in the evening at half past seven o'clock, and Foreign Missions be made the order of the day for that hour.

The session was extended fifteen minutes to hear Rev. J. W. Bain, delegate of the National Reform Association. The chief aim of the Association, said Mr. Bain, is to induce the nation to acknowledge the sovereignty of God in the person of his son Jesus Christ over the nation. If it is the duty of the nation to make such recognition, it is the duty of the nation to make it so explicit that there shall be no doubt in regard to it.

At the conclusion of Mr. Bain's address the Assembly adjourned. Rev. Dr. Doig concluding by prayer.

EVENING SESSION.

Last evening the Assembly again convened at 7½ o'clock, the Moderator in the chair.

Rev. James Sawhill opened with prayer.

The consideration of the report in reference to the China Mission was then resumed.

Rev. David Paul, Chairman of the Committee, thought the Assembly should either yield a hearty support to the Mission or abandon it. To bring the matter properly before the Assembly he offered as a substitute the following:

Resolved, That it is the solemn and deliberate judgment of this Assembly that the mission in China ought to be reinforced and heartily supported.

Rev. Mr. McHenry said that ten years ago he doubted the propriety of supporting this mission. He had changed his opinion. Since Mr. Nevin had been in the field and valuable property had been secured he thought best to continue. Many Chinese were now coming to this country and this with other reasons convinced him it was wise to continue the mission.

Rev. Mr. Purdy favored the resolution decidedly. He thought if necessary, additional means might be secured to send other laborers out.

Rev. Mr. Pollock was opposed to the resolution. There were many stronger missionary stations in China, under the direction of orthodox sister churches, with more laborers than the United Presbyterian Church could hope to command.

If it was to be placed on a sound basis, however, he pledged his congregation to raise their proportion of the funds necessary.

Rev. Mr. McGill, of Juniata, said he was in favor of the resolution. The Assembly, having put their "hand to the plow," and then looking back, could not expect the blessing of God upon them. A great door was opened up, and a work was commenced which must be continued if they were true to their trust as stewards of the Master.

He was afraid the faith of the Church was failing in this respect. Because they had it not they had failed. With faith they could continue the work, and their labors would be crowned with rich success.

Rev. Mr. Pollock suggested that it was time the debate should close. A great many of the members had to seek their places of entertainment outside the cities, and if they remained longer in the Assembly they would miss the train.

Rev. Mr. Bruce moved that the subject be postponed until Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock. This was subsequently amended, providing that the vote be not taken before ten o'clock.

After considerable discussion, the motion, as amended, was carried.

THE BAPTISM QUESTION.

The report of the Committee on Papal Baptism was then taken up, with the resolution providing for its adoption. The report embodied the idea that Papal baptism was not Christian.

Rev. Mr. Harper moved an amendment to the report, so as to expunge that sentence which said "The Church of Rome at one time was Christian," but had degenerated.

He supported his motion by a lengthy speech, and concluded by defining his reasons for making it, first, as because it was not a fact that the Romish Church was ever Christian, and second, it would lead to a wrong impression of the position of the Church.

Several members made short speeches on the motion, when

Rev. Mr. Paul offered an amendment that "the validity of Papal baptism is not admitted."

Rev. Mr. Ormond, of New York, thought they had nothing to do with the early infancy of the Romish Church. They only were considering the assertion that the Church of Rome was the synagogue of Satan. He believed that. He thought that Church had no right to baptise in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. It is not now a Christian Church, and that was all they had to deal with.

Rev. Mr. Jackson thought to pass this resolution was to establish a new doctrine in the church. It was a question which had never been decided in either of the associations which now formed the United Presbyterian Church. The question was a very important one, and he did not think the Assembly was ready to decide it. It had never been mooted in the Presbyteries. He knew there were many there who thought a decision such as made by the paper, was a wrong one. He, therefore, favored postponing the matter until the next General Assembly. For himself he was ready to vote now against the resolution, or the adoption of the paper, but thought it advisable to postpone.

Rev. Mr. Turnbull said he was as strongly opposed to the Roman Catholic as any one, but he was not now prepared to vote intelligently on such a weighty matter. The paper might be correct in every part, but he had not had time to consider and was unwilling to vote.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong said if the members were not now prepared to decide on this question it was their own fault. It should not now be postponed.

Rev. Mr. Ormond said the question was a very practical one with him. In his town he had been missionating among the Roman Catholic Church; some of them attended his preaching and would come into his church in all probability. Now, he wanted to know whether he should baptize them or not.

If it was admitted that their baptism was of divine origin then the United Presbyterian Church might as well admit them on certificate. That was the logical sequence.

Rev. Mr. Harper obtained the floor now and was proceeding with his argument when Rev. Mr. Wallace, the Assistant Clerk, asked if he would allow a moment's interruption? The speaker was gracious.

The Clerk (looking at his watch) well, then, I hope the gentleman will have pity on poor suffering humanity and let us go to bed. It's half-past nine. [Laughter.]

Rev. Mr. Harper averred his sympathy with the "humanity" and manifested it by generously inflicting upon them a fifteen minute's speech.

At the conclusion, a dozen members simultaneously moved an adjournment, which was carried with great unanimity.

Rev. Mr. Thompson dismissed the Assembly with prayer.

EDUCATIONAL.

Special Meeting of the Central Board of Education—The Book Question—Mitchell's Geographies Adopted.

A special meeting of the Central Board of Education was held in the rooms of the Board, Lloyd & Black's Building, Fourth avenue, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of adopting a geography for the use of the schools the coming year.

Members present—Messrs. Aiken, Anderson, Chadwick, Clark, Craig, Fleming, Getty, Humbert, Hamilton, Harrison, Hartman, Lauffman, Mitchell, May, Neckermann, Nobbs, Shaw, Sims, Taylor, and Wilson, President.

The President stated the object of the meeting to be the adoption of a geography for the use of the schools.

Mr. Nbbos presented the credentials of Mr. Robert Young as a delegate from the Springfield sub-district.

Mr. Hartman objected to the reception of the paper read, as this was a special meeting, and that no business, except that for which the meeting was called, could be transacted without a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Mitchell moved that the rules be suspended in order to take up new business.

The President stated that he thought the paper might be received; as he understood the matter a delegate could be admitted at any time.

Mr. Shaw withdrew his motion to suspend the rules.

The Chairman decided that the credentials were regular, and could be received and acted upon.

Mr. Hartman raised the point of order that the Chair could not decide a point when there was a motion before the house.

Mr. Craig renewed the motion to suspend the rules.

Considerable discussion ensued.

Mr. Craig raised several points of order.

The President decided that the points were not well taken.

Mr. Shaw moved to receive the credentials of the delegate, and admit him to a seat.

Mr. Hartman moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.

The question recurred on the motion to receive the delegate, when the yeas and nays were called, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Aiken, Chadwick, Clark, Getty, Humbert, Laufman, Mitchell, Nobbs, Shaw, Taylor, and President Wilson—11.

Nays—Messrs. Anderson, Craig, Fleming, Hamilton, Harrison, Hartman, Mays, Neckermann and Shaw—9.

So the delegate was admitted.

Mr. Shaw moved that Mitchell's School Geographies be selected for the use of the public schools of the city.

Mr. Craig moved to substitute Guyot's Geography.

Mr. Hartman moved to amend by providing that no geography be admitted in the schools except upon even exchange for the books now in use.

The amendment was adopted.

The question recurred on the motion of Mr. Craig, which was lost by a vote of 9 for, to 12 against.

The vote was then taken on the original motion of Mr. Shaw to adopt Mitchell's Geography, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Aiken, Chadwick, Clark, Getty, Humbert, Laufman, Mitchell, Nobbs, Shaw, Taylor, Young and President Wilson—12.

Nays—Messrs. Anderson, Craig, Fleming, Hamilton, Harrison, Hartman, Mays, Neckermann and Sims—9.

So the motion was carried and Mitchell's Geography declared adopted for the ensuing year.

On motion adjourned.

Worth Considering.

We ask our readers to notice, and not pass carelessly by, the advertisement in to-day's GAZETTE of the Andes Insurance Company.

The advertiser briefly, but very clearly and satisfactorily explains the plan of the Company, which is a novelty, but not the less meritorious because novel. Most shrewd minds will readily comprehend the advantages of having a permanent branch of a well constituted, well conducted and perfectly safe Insurance Company established in every large commercial and manufacturing center throughout the western States—the branches to be exclusively under the supervision of local Directors and officers who are also stockholders, thus localizing the several branches at the seat of their business, securing to the customers a prompt settlement of all losses by officers personally known to them and also, of course familiar with the circumstances of the fire and the character of the claimant.

It seems to us that this plan commends itself both to the capitalist, as affording a safe and profitable investment, and to the citizens generally, as a perfectly reliable protection from loss by fire. The losses would always be adjusted by one's neighbors, as in the case of our home offices, and yet by reason of its numerous branches, all working for each, and each for all, the resources of the entire vast concern would render embarrassment or defalcation impossible.

Several prominent citizens, appreciating the merits of this enterprise, have already secured an interest in its stock, and we have no doubt the portion assigned to Pittsburgh will find ready sale. The books were opened on the 2d of May, and already $900,000 have been subscribed. It has been demonstrated by the researches of Mr. Berne, of Cincinnati, that the average profits realized by Western underwriters, during a period of sixteen years, has exceeded 31 per cent., a fact sufficiently tempting for that class of investments. Let us have in Pittsburgh a branch of the "Andes."

IN MEMORIAM.

Death of T. B. Hamilton, Esq.—Proceedings in the U. S. Court Relative Thereto—Meeting of the Pittsburgh Bar—Resolutions.

The sudden and unexpected death of Thos. B. Hamilton, Esq., to which we briefly alluded yesterday has created deep sorrow in the large circle of friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Mr. Hamilton was a leading member of the bar, and by his genial deportment, gentlemanly bearing and high sense of honor commanded the respect and esteem of all with whom he associated.

His death was announced in the several county courts yesterday, which, out of respect to his memory, suspended business. Appropriate action was taken in the United States Court, of which he bar was also a member, and a meeting of the Pittsburgh bar was held to take action relative to his death.

In the United States Court W. D. Moore, Esq., in announcing the death of Mr. Hamilton, said:

May it please the Court, in common with the members of the bar, his older associates and friends, and the whole community, I was yesterday startled and grieved by the announcement of the death of Thomas B. Hamilton, Esq., for twenty years past an honored and prominent member of this Bar. I regret that the sorrowful duty of making this announcement has not fallen to some older member of the bar to whom his abilities and attainments were better known. His virtues as a man, I have long known and admired. He stands in my memory linked with the precious associations of my student life—with the companions and classmates—the teachers who have made the old university sacred to your Honor as well as to myself. Mr. Hamilton and myself were separated by distance and diversity of pursuit for a large portion of our life, but when in the strange providence of God, I was brought by admission to the bar, once more to his side—he welcomed me with the old cordiality—with a large-hearted generosity encouraged me in the new sphere and struggle upon which I had entered, and to the day of his death, held the old bond of fraternity good, over all differences of thought and feeling. I am scarcely fit to attend to any business, hardly to discharge this sad office of affection, standing as I do by this suddenly opened grave. This is not the time or place to pronounce his eulogium. At the more formal meeting of the bar, others will fulfill that sacred duty, but I know how profound is the sorrow for his early death, and how wide is the sympathy for his bereaved family. In testimony of respect to his memory, I move that this Court do now adjourn.

H. Bucher Swope, United States District Attorney, seconded the motion and said: My acquaintance with Mr. Hamilton has been brief, but it has been sufficiently long to justify my hearty approval of the tribute paid by Mr. Moore to his memory. It is with sincere sorrow I am called upon so early in my connection with this court, to discharge so melancholy a duty. To those who have known him long and intimately belongs the office of further illustrating and honoring his character and memory by such fitting tribute as they may deem suitable. What I have learned of Mr. Hamilton in our brief intercourse, gives me assurance that I shall join sincerely in that sorrowful duty.

His Honor, Judge McCandless said: "I have known Mr. Hamilton ever since his admission to the bar—indeed from his boyhood. By his diligence and ability he secured a very large practice, and by his urbanity and honor as an Attorney, won friends not a few, both in and out of the profession. I have been deeply grieved and startled by his sudden death. It is fit and right that the memory of one who has illustrated and adorned his honorable profession, should be cherished and revered. It is ordered that the Court do now adjourn, in respect to his memory, and that the record of these proceedings be entered in the minutes of the Court.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

The members of the Pittsburgh Bar, pursuant to a published notice, met yesterday at 2 o'clock P. M., in the Common Pleas Court room, to take appropriate action relative to the death of Thos. B. Hamilton, Esq. The meeting was organized by calling Judge Stowe to the chair. His Honor, in a brief address, referred to many good qualities of the deceased, after which Judge Kirkpatrick, Judge Stowe, John Barton, Esq., and Robert Woods were elected Vice Presidents, and F. M. Magee and Josiah Cohen chosen Secretaries.

Maj. A. M. Brown moved the appointment of a committee of five to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting relative to the death of Mr. Hamilton.

The motion prevailed, and Messrs. A. M. Brown, Jno. H. Bailey, B. F. Lucas, W. B. Negley and E. P. Jones, Esqs., were appointed.

During the absence of the Committee W. D. Moore, Esq., in an eloquent speech eulogized the deceased.

Maj. A. M. Brown, Chairman of the Committee, submitted the following:

WHEREAS, We have heard with profound sorrow of the decease of our brother Thos. B. Hamilton, Esq., of the Pittsburgh Bar, therefore,

Resolved, That in his decease we have lost a warm hearted friend and the Bar an earnest and able advocate.

Resolved, That while we humbly and reverently bow to the dispensation of Providence in thus suddenly removing our friend and brother, we tender to his afflicted wife this expression of our appreciation of his worth, and extend to her in her sad bereavement our sincere sympathy.

Resolved, That the members of the Bar will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to convey a copy of these resolutions to the wife of the deceased, and request the Courts of this county to have the same entered on their minutes.

Eloquent and feeling addresses were then delivered by Messrs. A. M. Brown, John M. McLowrey, Joseph Gazzam, W. C. Moreland, Samuel Harper, B. F. Lucas, and others, after which the resolutions were adopted, and Messrs. W. D. Moore, J. H. Baldwin, David Reed, James W. Murray and Samuel Harper, were appointed to convey a copy of the resolutions to the wife of deceased and request the Courts of the county to have the same entered upon the minutes.

The meeting then adjourned.

ROBBED HER EMPLOYER.

A Female Clerk Supplies Her Wardrobe—How it Was Done and What Was the Result.

Last evening a sensation in the shop-lifting line was developed in Allegheny. The clerks in a Federal street dry goods store near the Diamond were leaving, when the head salesman observed one of the females carrying away three small parcels. As it is against a rule of the establishment to take packages away unless their contents are known, inquiry was at once made. The young girl at first hesitated, but finally allowed two of them to be examined. They consisted of a hat, ribbons, and other small articles which she said were paid for. The other parcel she positively refused to show until it was taken. In it was found a lot of lace. She then attempted to leave the room, but the doors were locked and no one allowed to go out. Her lunch basket was also found to contain ribbons and lace which had not been paid for. Alderman Bowden was summoned, and the girl being thus caught, acknowledged the theft, but plead most earnestly to be released and stated that it was her first offence. The merciful proprietor felt a pity for the youthful criminal and refused to prosecute. A search warrant, however, was issued and officers Gabby and Shaffer sent to her residence on this side. They returned about ten o'clock, bringing with them several shawls, parasols, hats, ribbons, stockings, laces and a variety of small articles, in all amounting to over $100 worth. It was evident that the stealings had been going on for some time. The girl thus detected is quite young, and was considered one of the best female clerks in the establishment. She seemed to feel her position keenly, but had nothing to say after the officers returned. The proprietor of the store was notified of the finding of the goods, but has not yet decided upon the course to be pursued. The fresh evidence of the girl's dishonesty and duplicity, may induce him to reconsider his intention to allow the matter to pass.

SUICIDE.

Hung to a Tree—Domestic Infelicity.

Sunday morning considerable excitement was created in little Washington by the discovery of the body of James Anderson, a resident of the place, hanging to a tree just outside the town. He was a man in middle age, and about three months ago married his second wife. Last week it is said she left him and returned to her parents in Ohio, giving as a reason that he failed to support her. Anderson was very dejected by the occurrence and acted in such a manner as to attract notice on Friday but no suspicions were entertained that he contemplated suicide. He was not seen from that day and nothing was known of him until the finding of the body. It is thought his domestic trouble had driven him temporarily insane and led to his death.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Opera House will be opened to the public Saturday afternoon and evening of the present week. In the afternoon Mr. Conklin the gentlemanly treasurer who graced the box office during the season, will take a benefit, on which occasion a rare bill will be presented. Mr. Harry Hotto, the favorite comedian has consented to favor us with his presence on this occasion and in consideration of this fact a complimentary benefit will be tendered him Saturday evening. Of course all his old friends will be there.

MINSTRELS.—Leon & Kelly's celebrated minstrels are creating a sensation at the Academy of Music. The house is crowded every night. Go and hear them. They are immensely funny.

CIRCUS—Campbell's circus is drawing large crowds to the Allegheny Diamond. This afternoon and evening are the last chances to see them, and they should be improved.

A DEFAULTER.

A City Official Decamps with Several Hundred Dollars of the City Funds—A Successor to be Elected—Applicants for the Position.

For several days past a rumor has been circulating freely that the Wharfmaster of the Allegheny Wharf has not been attending to his business properly and that unless he changed his ways the Committee would be compelled to recommend to Council the propriety of a change in officers. Subsequently there appears to have been a change, but not such as cotemplated by the Wharf Committee. The Wharfmaster, it is alleged, has changed his base of operations and no longer acts in the capacity of a city official, as it is currently reported that he has gone to California and taken a considerable sum of money, which should have been paid into the City Treasury, with him, thereby reducing the "current balance" to the extent of several hundred dollars. How much truth there is in these reports we are unable to say, but an examination of the books in the Treasurer's office shows that the Wharf Master has paid no money into the Treasury for the present fiscal year. The last return made to the Treasurer by him was on the 31st day of January, at which time he is credited with $275, which appears to have been the receipts for the month of January, as he is credited on the third of the same month with $160, which was doubtless the receipts for February.

We presume the Controller's books will, as they unquestionably should do, show the amount returned by the Wharf Master for the months of February, March and April, and it is not probable that any return has yet been made for the month of May; but we had no opportunity of examining the Controller's books after learning the circumstances in the case, and consequently cannot state the amounts.

The fact of the Wharf Master's absence was brought to the notice of the Committee several days since, and application has been made by at least four persons for the position, which we are informed, will be declared vacant by the Committee at the next meeting of Councils.

The city, of course, will not lose anything, except the services of the Wharf Master, as his bondsmen will be held responsible for any deficiency in his account with the city.

The contest for the position thus made vacant has already become quite lively, there being, as stated above, no less than four candidates for it. It is to be hoped, if another is elected, as there undoubtedly will be, that Councils will select a competent and reliable man.

The saloon is open from six in the morning until midnight, and is managed with such tact that no confusion is ever experienced in providing for the wants of customers.
